

I live in a small community in San Diego county where only ONE Christian radio station such as K-LOVE that provides continous Christian music (which I listen to and support financially) is located. The effect on the local community if K-LOVE were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster profiding other programming would be extremely detrimental.